BBB Accredited since December 1957

Bruce Pieratt, President, Pieratt's, Inc.

For over 50 years, Pieratt's has supported the ethical principals championed by the Better Business Bureau because they believe it adds value to their long-running business. A fixture in the Lexington community, Pieratt's believes their customers should feel confident in choosing them when they are making a large purchase, such as a television or a refrigerator. They know the BBB is essential in adding to this confidence and feel proud to be such a long-time BBB supporter.

Pieratt's President, Bruce Pieratt, states, "Being a BBB Accredited Business means our customers can be reassured that they are dealing with a company that is honest, ethical and one that will stand behind their products to ensure their complete satisfaction." He adds, "In today's economy, the Better Business Bureau and the credibility it provides is even more important to our business as we work to stand out from our competition."
